Good ablutions - lovely campsite on the banks of the Orange river

08 June

Depart from Oewerbos, and take a leusurly drive all along the Orange river where we enter the Nabiep Nature Reserve, before descending down to Kanikaip - our wilderness campsite on the banks of the Orange river.

NO ABLUTIONS!

09 June

An exciting day lay ahead of us, as we start exploring this desolated wilderness.

Our route will take us into the famous Helskloof/Nabiep Nature Reserve, which forms part of the Richterveld Mountain Desert.

This region is super rich in biodiversity, and includes the Namib desert, succulant Karoo, and even Fynbos in the Stinkfontein mountains.

Furthermore, 33 plant species is unique to this region, and can not be found anywhere else in the world!

We will eventually travel past the village of Eksteenfontein, before reaching our spectacular campsite against a rockface - Tierhoek.
NO ABLUTIONS !

10 June

Leave after breakfast, and drive to the Park entrance gate at Sendelingsdrift, before proceeding deeper into this mountain desert to Pooitjiespram - our campsite for the night.
COLD WATER ABLUTIONS!

11 June

The sand and rocky tracks will take us via Halfmens pass, Akkedis pass and Koeroegabvlakte, before arriving back at the river at De Hoop - our campsite for tonight.
COLD WATER ABLUTIONS !

12 June

Morning at leisure, before we once again pack up, and make our way deeper into the mountains. The tracks takes us via Maerpoort pass, Mt Koerdegab, Mt Richterberg and lots more before we arrive at Kokeboomkloof camp which is situated in the centre of the world heritage site - the vistas will leave you breathless!
NO WATER - ONLY RUSTIC TOILETS

13 June

Depart from this wonderland, exit the Park via Helskloof pass, and follow the Orange river past Alexander Bay (RSA side) / Oranjemund (Namibian side), to the Atlantic coastline, and from there to Port Nolloth.

We will camp tonight at McDougalls Bay
